

1605.Rathnayake, P.M

Comparative analysis of utilization of financial allocation in four selected hospitals
MD (Medical Administration) - 2008

D 2299

This study looked into management competency particularly in regard to financial aspects. Data regarding management competency was collected on a self administered questionnaire and data regarding hospital operational costs were collected from hospital records. Data collected was tabulated and analyzed. The results revealed that the JICAA assisted innovations to accounting systems for development of measures of performance have been very beneficial. In this study for training and motivation of staff , improvement of bugeting systems, allocation of requied cadre for each hospital et, is considered timely.