

0605.Gunaratne, C.D

Sexually transmitted diseases and drug abuse
MD (Community Medicine) - 1994

D 551

This study was conducted to identify if drug abusers are a risk group in contracting sexually diseases in Sri Lanka. According to the results of this study, it was concluded that drug abusers are a risk group in contracting sexually transmitted diseases. Thus it was recommended that special emphasis should be focused on drug abusers in the sexually transmitted diseases/AIDS control programme